

Miriam Staley

communications coach, awards-ceremony moderator, event-host

As a seasoned TV presenter, business leader and event host, Miriam's sparkling energy, dynamic stage presence and professional speaking talents take her far beyond traditional event moderation and presentations. She first rose to fame as one of five finalists on S1 of 'The Apprentice,' capturing the nation's hearts through her strong work ethic and exceptional interpersonal skills. Now found on stages around the world, Miriam brings all of her charm, knowledge and power of influence to the conferences that she hosts, having made a name for herself internationally as a reliable and captivating emcee. Her star-studded performances include fronting a live-fundraising charity awards show for Global Angels, a business showcase for the Chamber of Commerce, and repeat bookings for the annual international summit for a leading technology company. Equally complementing her event moderating and keynote skills, Miriam leads full-day presentation skills masterclasses and executive public speaking coaching sessions that are enabling business leaders, aspiring speakers and global organisations to find their voice, hone their message, and deliver their stories with gravitas and credibility. Her experience and techniques on effective, confident and compelling communication are exceeding the expectations of some of the largest and most innovative companies in the world, like Royal Mail, Scality, and Marks & Spencer. Everything she delivers adds immense value to any leadership development programme, business summit or live event. Miriam's personal ease in connecting with people makes her the natural go-to talent for any event.

“ Miriam's knowledgeable and passionate moderation makes such a difference and has a huge impact on the overall experience of our annual summit. She is without a doubt our first choice whenever we need a moderator.

Christian Egle, Communications Manager

Our speakers greatly benefited from her coaching; she was one of best trainers overall due to her unique energy and positive approach. We couldn't be happier with Miriam's contribution – she's a brilliant mind with exceptional communication skills, who won everybody over with her patience and tremendous insight.
