

Miriam Staley

2019

communications coach, awards-ceremony moderator, event-host

As a seasoned TV and event host, Miriam's approach to life, her dynamic stage presence and professional speaking talents take her far beyond traditional event moderation and presentation.

As one of five finalists on 'The Apprentice,' she infected many people with her personal desire to help them be better than they thought they could ever be. Miriam's charm and power of influence lie in identifying and nurturing the potential people have yet to discover and working with them to making it a reality. She makes this possible both with individual leaders, as well as with entire event audiences, captivating and inspiring them to engage. Her experience and techniques on effective communication are exceeding the expectations of some of the largest and most innovative companies in the world. The true value of having Miriam as your speaker at a conference is her authenticity when she connects with audiences, warmly persuading them go out and start applying her insights and methods. Her star-studded performances include hosting a live-fundraising charity awards show for Global Angels, a business showcase for the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce, and the annual conference for the Builders Merchants Federation. Equally complementing her event moderator and keynote speaker skills, Miriam leads full-day Masterclasses and executive coaching sessions that are enabling business leaders, aspiring speakers and global organisations to find their voice, hone their message, and deliver their stories with gravitas and credibility.

5 THINGS YOU MIGHT NOT KNOW ABOUT MIRIAM STALEY

1. A mother of two delicious children, she divides her time as a business leader, communications trainer and event Master of Ceremonies across Europe and the US;
2. Was a top five finalist on the UK's 'The Apprentice' with billionaire business-magnate Lord Alan Sugar;
3. Miriam managed partner sponsorships for Lloyds TSB during the 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games;
4. She has a BA in French and Spanish, having lived in many countries including the French West Indies, France and Spain;
5. As a motivational speaker, her focus is on the topics of: the power of perception, maximising potential, the pursuit of excellent communication...to name a few.

What can I say? Miriam was the star of the show yesterday! She really was the perfect host for our conference!

Miriam's real talent is in working with any presenter no matter how nervous they may be, and she wins everybody over with her patience, insight & positive approach.

